

An involvement journey: INVOLVE & Western Australia

Anne McKenzie AM

'INVOLVE at 21'

London, November 2017

The two places

The start of the journey....

Involvement Program established in 1998 at two research organisations

INVOLVE NHS National Institute for Health Research

Helen Hayes

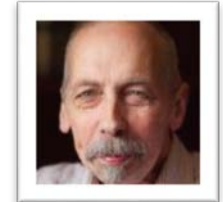

Philippa Yeeles

Maryrose Tarpey

Rosemary Barber

Derek Stewart

Simon Denegri

Bec Hanley

Sally Crowe

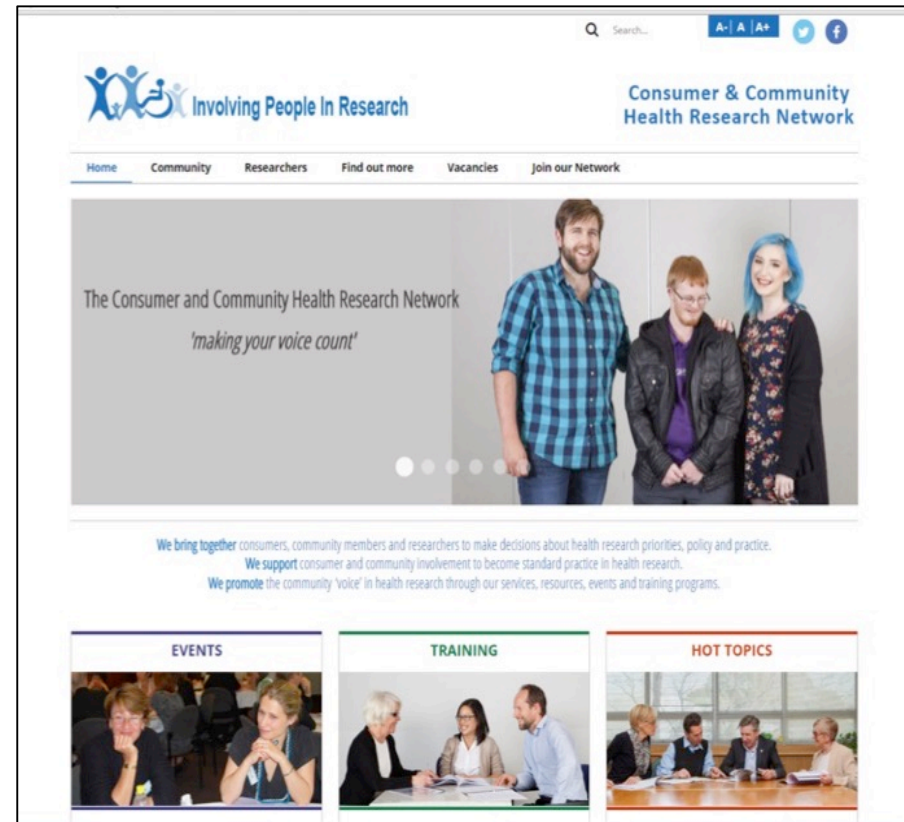

The next part of the journey....

2007 - published the 'green book' & developed training with Bec Hanley

2010 - met Hayley Harrison at INVOLVE Conference

2011 - new funding supported more staff and the development of a structured program

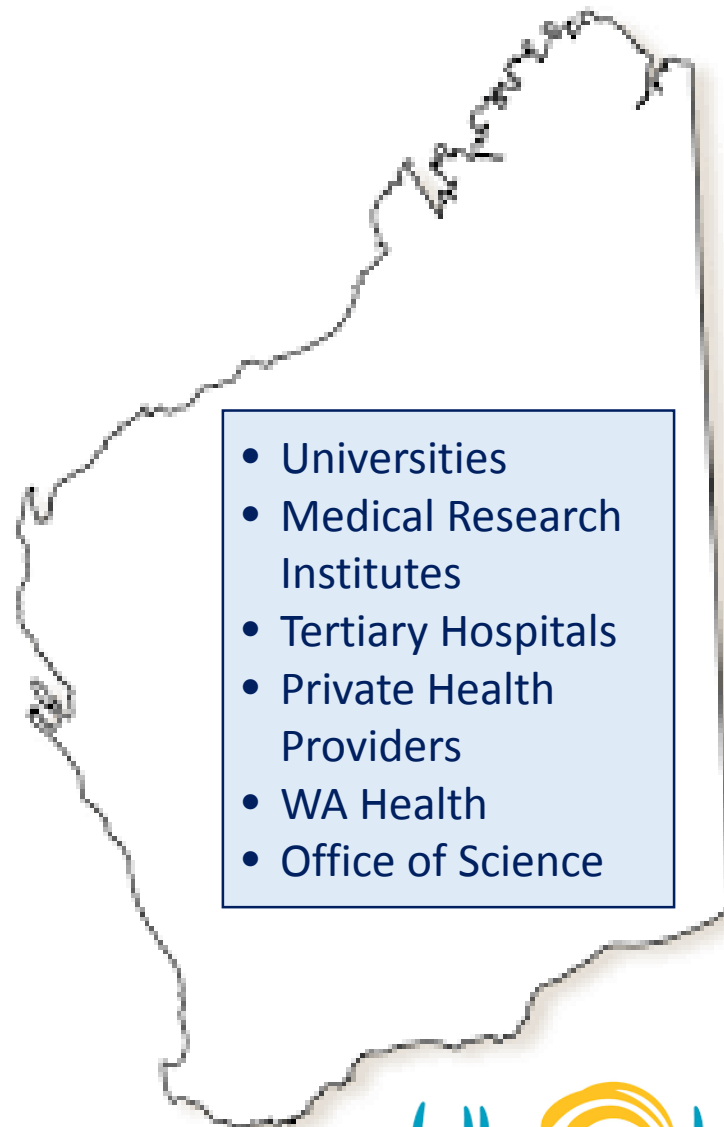

www.involvingpeopleinresearch.org.au

Our training, resources, website, structure, processes & publications have been developed with input from our UK colleagues

Moving across Western Australia

- Last year we received 3 year funding from WA's Lottery Commission 2016 – 2019
- Australia has 7 Academic Health Research Translation Centres and we are part of the WA Health Translation Network
- We have expanded our services across 22 partner organisations of the WA Health Translation Network

Our Network's Team

Network Head

Strategic direction, national and international leadership

Development Team

Development of support services i.e. website, community database, resources, training, opportunities to be involved

Delivery Team (Consumer Advocates)

Provide on-the-ground support and advice in the partner organisations on involvement initiatives

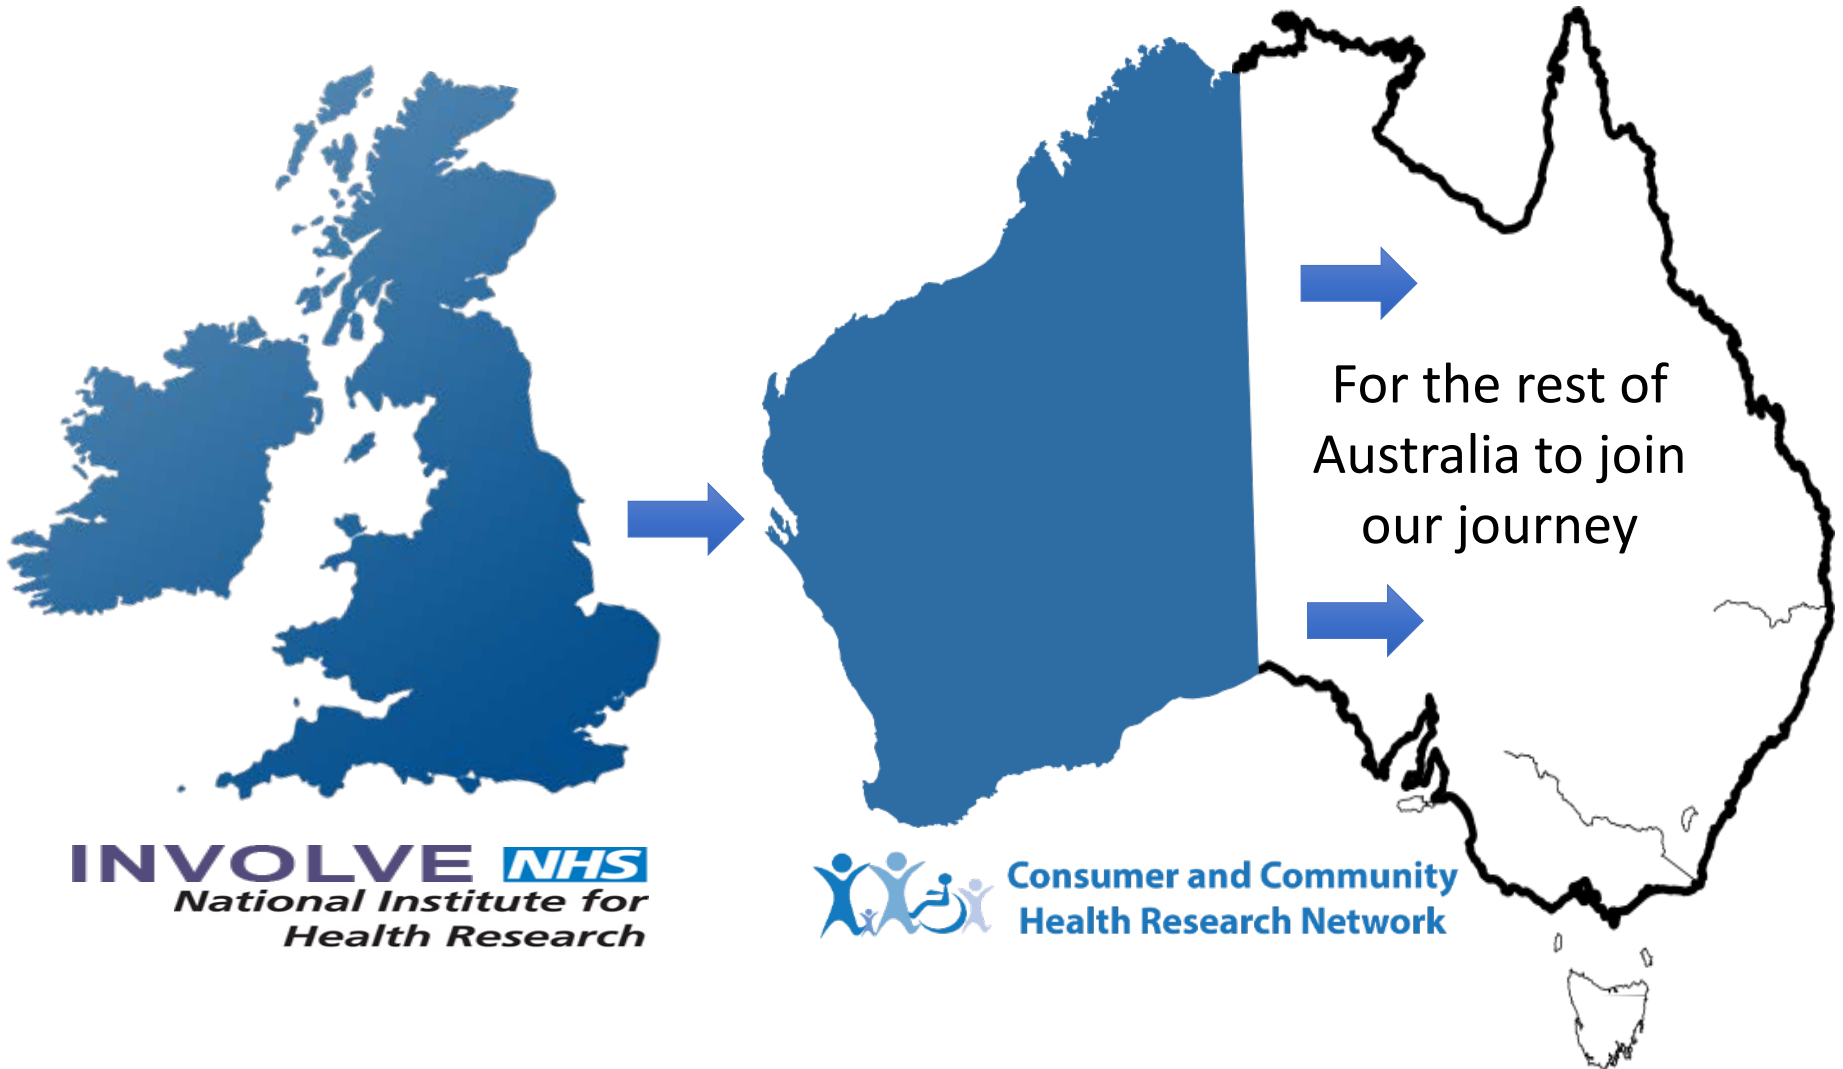

Some highlights 2007 - 2017

- 1850+ registered members on our database
- 420+ consumers and community members on decision-making committees

Hopes for the future

Sincere thank you to INVOLVE and to all our UK colleagues you have had a big impact in Western Australia

Happy 21st
