

Webinar 4 – User Controlled Research

NIHR School for Social Care Research (SSCR)/INVOLVE public involvement and participation in adult social care research webinar series: 'User Controlled Research'

Thank you to everybody who joined us for our fourth webinar on 13 May 2014.

The presenters were:

Peter Beresford, Professor of Social Policy, Brunel University and Director of the Centre for Citizen Participation, who talked about methods for user-controlled research, key issues and overcoming potential barriers drawing on his SSCR-funded Scoping Review

Dr Sarah Carr, Sarah Carr and Associates Ltd, Universities of Birmingham and York and co-Vice Chair, National Survivor User Network (NSUN). Sarah talked about her experiences of developing an academic research programme bid that includes user-controlled investigations.

Mike Clark, Research Programme Manager, NIHR School for Social Care Research.

You can view the slides from the webinar here