Please can you help with a survey of patient and public involvement (PPI) in randomised clinical trials?

Please can you help with a survey of patient and public involvement (PPI) in randomised clinical trials. This work is being co-ordinated by a PhD student at University College

London alongside a wider group of researchers, doctors, patients and public individuals from the United Kingdom involved in clinical trials around the world. This survey is for patients and members of the public, and there is the chance to enter a prize draw to win one of ten vouchers worth £50 each for those who complete this survey.
