

Supplements to resource for researchers

The supplements complement the briefing notes for researchers by providing detailed information on public involvement in specific types of research and on specific involvement activities. All of the supplements have been developed with members of the public and researchers who have experience of the subject.

- Public involvement in systematic reviews
- Strategies for diversity and inclusion in public involvement
- Public involvement in clinical trials